God’s Meaning of Marriage

• Marriage covenant is a binding agreement between a man and a woman who are legally and spiritually joined together as husband and wife. Jesus says of the husband/wife relationship ...
  “So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate” (Matthew 19:6).

• Marriage ceremony refers to the rite of joining a man and a woman in wedlock.

  “She is your partner, the wife of your marriage covenant. ... So be on your guard, and do not be unfaithful to the wife of your youth.”
  (Malachi 2:14–15)

The Covenant Commitment

• The marriage covenant is not just between two people, but between two people and God.
  “What God has joined together, let no one separate” (Mark 10:9).

• The marriage covenant requires self-sacrifice and a commitment till death.
  “May your fountain be blessed, and may you rejoice in the wife of your youth” (Proverbs 5:18).

• The marriage covenant holds each person singly responsible to demonstrate a covenant of love and loyalty, even if the mate does not respond accordingly.
  “As far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone”
  (Romans 12:18).

• The marriage covenant keepers realize that keeping a lifetime commitment is a continual process of submitting their will to God, allowing Him to develop the character of Christ in them.
  “I consider my life worth nothing to me; my only aim is to finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me—the task of testifying to the good news of God’s grace” (Acts 20:24).

God’s Heart on Marriage

Throughout Scripture, God has given us insight into His heart regarding marriage. Clearly, His mind-set has always been that the marriage relationship is ...

• To be honored and kept pure
  “Marriage should be honored by all, and the marriage bed kept pure, for God will judge the adulterer and all the sexually immoral” (Hebrews 13:4).

• To provide companionship and intimacy
  “However, each one of you also must love his wife as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband” (Ephesians 5:33).

• To exhibit unity
  “Jesus knew their thoughts and said to them, ‘Every kingdom divided against itself will be ruined, and every city or household divided against itself will not stand’” (Matthew 12:25).

• To last a lifetime
  “For example, by law a married woman is bound to her husband as long as he is alive, but if her husband dies, she is released from the law that binds her to him” (Romans 7:2).

• To not end in divorce
  “I hate divorce!” says the LORD, the God of Israel”
  (Malachi 2:16 NLT).

• To avoid contamination by hardened hearts
  “Jesus replied, ‘Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because your hearts were hard. But it was not this way from the beginning. I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another woman commits adultery’”
  (Matthew 19:8–9).

• To share oneness of spirit, soul, and body
  “Do not be yoked together with unbelievers. For what do righteousness and wickedness have in common? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness?” (2 Corinthians 6:14).
